Be at the forefront of transforming learning in your school. Work at your own pace, explore new things week by week, share your learning as a team. You'll need to set aside 1-2 hours per week to complete the program.

This online program, complete with podcast instructions, resources and online mentors, offers you 'hands-on' experience of the 23 things (or small activities) that you can do on the web to explore and expand your knowledge of the internet and Web 2.0.

Over ten weeks you will create a blog, discover the social platform, create compelling audio visual content, learn effective means of content curation and information management, save the best of the internet with bookmarking and tagging, explore some search software with a difference, collaborate with workmates across the internet in real-time and more.
