Web 2.0 Extended

Six-week online learning program

Commencing 29th April, 2013

- This course is an extension on the popular The How 2 of Web 2.0: Learning with Web 2.0 online learning course. Web 2.0 Extended is designed to challenge and extend the skills of those who participated in the original intakes of the course over the past three years and further develop the necessary skills for navigating the complexities of cloud software.
- Join us in our exclusive virtual classroom and explore the way applications and add-ons have changed the landscape of the internet. Web 2.0 Extended is packed with creative and interactive activities, register now so you don't miss out!

- If you haven't completed How 2 of Web 2.0: Learning with Web 2.0 and want to complete this extension course simply register for the original program on 23rd of April, 2012, and the extension course on the 30th July, 2012, and complete them at the same time.

- You will learn more about the cloud and cloud-based software that makes information management a breeze.
- Plumb the depths of the App Store and kit out your computer with the best add-ons from Firefox, Safari and Chrome.
- Discover the many uses of smart devices and curate content efficiently on the go with smartphone and tablet apps like Float and Instapaper.
- Take live snapshots of the Internet and turn them into interactive notes and tasks with virtual note-taking tools.
- Collaborate with colleagues in real-time and learn to create digital content with our screencapture and podcasting tutorials.
