

ONE MINUTE'S SILENCE

The Story in Pictures

Gain insight into the amazing illustrations in One Minute's Silence via this commentary by Michael Camilleri, and then answer the questions below.

WEB: allenandunwin.com-illustrators commentary – <http://tinyurl.com/lu7e8ux>

Why are girls from the class drawn climbing out of the trenches?

What does the image of the fly represent?

What did the ANZACs leave behind?

How has a student's attitude changed after one minute's silence?

Use this Venn diagram to compare the story and drawings found in One Minute's Silence with those in In Flanders Fields by Norman Jorgensen and Brian Harrison Lever.

ONE MINUTE'S SILENCE

Exploring Turkey

Search the web for details about Turkey. Mark these places on the map below: Istanbul, Constantinople, Bursa, Cappadocia, Pamukkale Hierapolis and Konya.

Find a website about Turkey to explore and complete the chart below. Here is one example of a website you could use: Turkey Facts for Children A to Z Kids Stuff – <http://tinyurl.com/kuuubyk>

Turkey

City lifestyle and culture

Landforms

Native flora and fauna

Farming life and crops

Neighbouring countries

The Duck and the Darklings: Inventing Words

Describe the meaning of these amazingly inventive words.

Duck and Darklings word	Your own meaning wonderfulness
a downy heart
a glory bag
wanderlust
a curly brass tootle
Grandpa's magnificent remembery

Try to create two more fun offspring words like Duck and Darklings. They should have a name that almost sounds like the real thing. On the back of this page, you can sketch your impression of what they would look like.

Parent and young	Parent and made up word
Duck and ducklings	Duck and darklings
Swan and cygnets	Swan and singlets
Cow and calves	Cow and carts
Sheep and lambs	Sheep and lancers

Summarise The Duck and the Darklings with this story graph.

